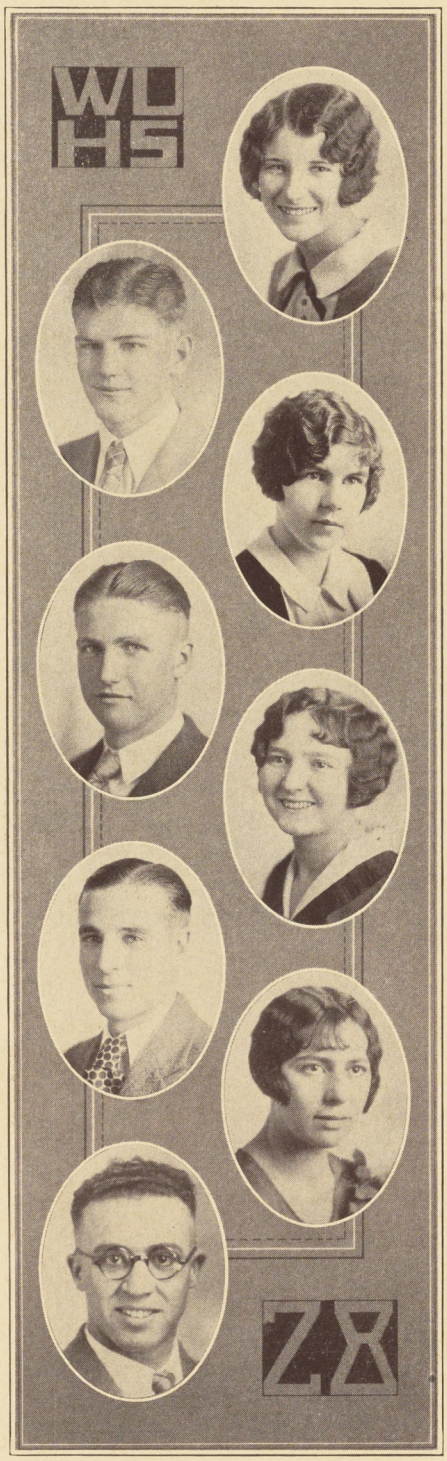
Classes



CLARABELLE LOGAN

The sweetest thing that ever grew beside a human door.

BOB AMYX

Studies are in my line;
Girls, too, are very fine.

CAROL OVERACKER

Poise gains one a first place.

LLOYD HYGELUND

Our leading man shows he can do
What he ought to, when he wants to.

MARGARET WHITE

Where else would you find them all combined—
A leader, a scholar, a friend so kind?

EDWARD ENOS

To the eyes as well as the mind I appeal.

EVELYN AMARAL

The best is none too good.

TONY DUARTE

Our champion because he knows the place of right, fight, and might.

ELLEN DUSTERBERRY

A rare combination of brains and beauty.

GEORGE LOWRIE

A man convinced against his will
Is of the same opinion still.

DAISY MENDENHALL

Whatever the affair
I'll take my share.

JOHN ANDRADE

There's always something to excite mirth.

ELIZABETH COSTA

Rather easy to please,
Always ready to tease.

JOSEPH FONTES

Mild manners and a great mind go hand in hand.

HELEN FALETTI

I like to have nice clothes
Whichever way the wind blows.

LESTER NUNES

My heart is with the happy crew.

INA HILLER

Nobody could keep up to her but her shadow.

MANUEL SANTOS

In dreamy eyes a story lies.

ANNA MAY FYFFE

She is always the same
In playing this great game.

CLARENCE ANDERSON

If silence were golden, he would be a millionaire.

AGNES ROGERS

There's so much to get from this mysterious life.

MARSHALL GREEN

Wrath doesn't belong in my path.

MARGARET SINCLAIR

Have ideals as well as ideas.

MARINO IACOPI

To err is human; to forgive divine.

ALICE AGNA

Peace is best undisturbed.

LEON MENDONCA

It isn't so much what you say as how you say it.

MARIE ESCOBAR

A happy-go-lucky miss
Just plumb full of bliss.

MORRISON GREEN

I do not like noise unless I make it.

STELLA MENDONCA

She has a constancy words nor affronts can shake.

CHARLES DANA

Wisdom is not everywhere.

ANGIE FAGUNDES

One whom little will not content.

RAPHAEL SOUZA

Not a bit like a "Scotchman" with his smiles.

FLORENCE AUST

Sparkling eyes and friendly smile
Sure to greet you all the while.

PHILLIP SOUSA

Regret is poor mending material.

LILLIAN CESARI

She always keeps us gay
With her merry little way.

PERCY BROBERG

Knowledge enlightens the mind.

LENA RIVERS

Lena is one of the kind
Who says what's on her mind.

ELMER LEWIS

We'd be in an awful fix
Without the date 1066.

HELEN ANDRADE

I believe in reading mintues instead of counting them.

ICHIJI MATSUDA

Thinking men talk not till their tongues tire.

HAZLE HEMPLEMAN

Such charms as hers soothe the heart and eyes.

MANUEL AZEVEDO

Small men are useful now and then.

FRANK STEINMETZ

Just a boy with a quiet way,
Never a host of things to say.

ANTHONY BETTENCOURT

This life we spoil with continuous toil.

LEE WILSON

A lad with a speaker's voice,
But a mechanic by choice.

EDNA WELLINGTON

One who is well read
Is not easily misled.

THE HOUSE AND THE ROAD

The little Road says, Go,
The little House says, Stay;
And O, it's bonny here at home,
But I must go away.

The little Road, like me,
Would seek and turn and know;
And forth I must, to learn the things
The little Road would show!

And go I must, my dears,
And journey while I may,
Though heart be sore for the little House
That had no word but Stay.

Maybe, no other way
Your child could ever know
Why a little House would have you stay,
When a little Road says, Go.

JOSEPHINE PRESTON PEABODY.

Senior Class Will

We, the senior class of Washington Union High School, being in full possession of all our mental faculties and having no fear of anyone before our eyes, not even Mr. Hodges or the other teachers, do hereby devise, will, bequeath, and convey our various earthly possessions, to the persons hereinafter mentioned, to be by them held in undisturbed possession through the length of their mortal span.

To the faculty we leave the comforting hope that the next senior class will be as great as we have been.

To the juniors we will and bequeath the commodity which we have had in great abundance, and which they most sorely need, our entire stock of common sense.

To the sophomores we leave the radio for use during activity period, as a preventive for study.

To the freshmen we leave sundry wads of gum under desks and elsewhere, hoping they will enjoy them as much as we have.

I, Alice Agna, will and bequeath my ability to grow large to Doris Destrella and Mary Azevedo.

I, Evelyn Amaral, will and bequeath my disposition to worry over my studies to Laura Peixotto and Mae Amarant.

I, Clarence Anderson will and bequeath my pep during Econ. to Bill Turner.

I, Helen Andrade, will and bequeath my position as secretary to any one who wishes to work.

I, John Andrade, will and bequeath my parking place outside Mr. Solvason's room to Clarence Souza.

I, Florence Aust, will and bequeath "my line of talk" to Edith Mello and Mae Fontes.

I, Jack Awbrey, will and bequeath my slenderness to Toshi Satoo.

I, Bob Amyx, will and bequeath my power to attract the women to Fritz Swanson.

I, Manuel Azevedo, will and bequeath my ability to be "seen and not heard" to Madelyn Azevedo.

I, Anthony Bettencourt, will and bequeath my sessions in the office to Massao Kataoka.

I, Percy Broberg, will and bequeath my ability to throw erasers to Orville Blose and Richard Silva.

I, Lillian Cesari, will and bequeath my perfect gym outfit to Alvina Enos and Louise Neves.

I, Charles Dana, will and bequeath my singing voice to William Wyatt and Sabino Ramos.

I, Tony Duarte, will and bequeath my javelin to Claire Bettencourt with the hope that he will throw it further than I have.

I, Ellen Dusterberry, will and bequeath my ability to tease to Genevieve Davilla and Mildred Sayles.

I, Edward Enos, will and bequeath my ability to recite Hamlet to Tommy Silva and Carl Salmon.

I, Marie Escobar, will and bequeath my dainty figure to Ada McBride and Dorothy Smith.

I, Marion Iacopi, leave Albert Leonardo in charge of Susie.

I, Lloyd Hygelund, will and bequeath my ability to spin tops in class to James Bunker and William Hirsch.

I, Elmer Lewis, will and bequeath my ability to play baseball to Anthony Fields.

I, Clarabelle Logan, will and bequeath my slender grace to Dorothy Van Dervoort and Marjorie Martin.

I, George Lowrie, will and bequeath my title of General Objector to Ray Jolliff.

I, Ichiji Matsuda, will and bequeath my brilliant mind to Paul Gygax.

I, Stella Mendonca, will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Solvason to Lucille Knobles and Eva Teeter.

I, Leon Mendonca, will and bequeath my ability to grow tall to Vernon Ichisaka.

I, Daisy Mendenhall, do will and bequeath Richard Hitchkiss, to Kathryn Bliss.

I, Angie Fagundes, do will and bequeath my angelic nature to Francis Habenicht and Isobel Thomas.

I, Helen Faletti, leave my ability to spice Easter eggs properly to Edith Oliveira and Martha Crane.

I, Joseph Fontes, do will and bequeath my position as class sheik to Bert Silveria.

I, Anna May Fyffe, do will my studious nature to Geraldine Harlan.

We, Marshall and Morrison Green, do will and bequeath our power to deceive the faculty to Emeline and Pauline Amaral.

I, Hazel Hempleman, do will and bequeath my ability to type to Ethel Ferry and Irene Laskey.

I, Ina Hiller, do will and bequeath my ruined career to Helen Baird, Frances Milani and Florinda Furtado.

I, Lester Nunes, do will and bequeath my Ford to Mervyn Blacow.

I, Carol Overacker, leave my ability to keep everybody waiting to Mary Caldeira and Doris Dutra.

I, Lena Rivers, leave my pleasing way to Bernice Boyd and Louise Oliver.

I, Agnes Rogers, leave my ability to get along with my Frosh sister to Dorothy Willis.

I, Manuel Santos, leave my ability to sleep on my Econ. book and absorb the knowledge to Buddy Ruschin.

I, Phillip Sousa, leave my ability to keep a girl with long curls to Jimmy Cull.

I, Raphael Souza, do will and bequeath my ability to give interesting talks in Econ. to Melvin Skow.

I, Frank Steinmetz, leave my small stature but big voice to Albert Hirota and Andrew Andrade.

I, Lee Wilson, do will and bequeath my ability to run into school busses to Lelaand DeQuadros.

I, Margaret White, do will and bequeath my perfect posture to Rosalie Joyce.

I, Margaret Sinclair, leave my friendship with Mr. Kinney to Ella Sullivan and Edith Goulart.

I, Edna Wellington, do will and bequeath my natural marcel to Jennie Malloy and Edna Joseph.

I, Elizabeth Costa, bequeath all the bumps and sprains acquired by me in physical education to Mary Beveridge and Vivian Joseph.

Witnesseth our hands this seventh day of June, 1928.

26—Carol Overacker presided at student body meeting.

SEPTEMBER

10—First football game—Alumni 0, Washington 0. Hurrah! We won, so did they.
19—Sis Costa appeared in a red sweater. Ellen should have one.
20—Report cards and many broken hearts.
21—Mr. Gatchel pleasantly surprised the Senior class by leaving Margaret Sinclair in charge.
26—Girls' League gave the Freshman reception.
29—The struggle ended, the Seniors will have an annual.
30—Mr. Kinney got his uppers.

OCTOBER

6—Daisy Mendenhall wore a new red ring.
7—Seniors had an afternoon off. How did that happen?
9—Roosevelt 0, Washington 19.
11—Dress uniform. Yes? No.
12—We got our student body pins.
14—Naughty, naughty boys teased the poor little Frosh.
21—Soph. party—success. What happened to the window shade in Leg's car?
23—We wondered who was the girl in brown we saw with Tony D. at the Hayward show.
25—Senior class president ducked.
28—Stanford press convention. I wonder if Ellen enjoyed the convention.

NOVEMBER

1—Clarence Soito wore a necktie today.
2—Rally for the Hayward game.
4—The Hayward game.
6—The "cooking girl," that Carol was in such a hurry to see, appeared.
18—The fourth period physical ed. class played a game of volleyball against the fifth period champion team and won. How did it happen?
23—Yum! Yum! The candy sale.
28—Thanksgiving dance. Did we have a good time? I'll say we did.

DECEMBER

3—Marino (Sub) broke the camera at Hartsook's.
6—Marie had a hair cut. It's windblown, too.
8—Bobby Amyx had his picture taken sans—?
13—Report cards.
17—Girls were awarded W's.—Girls' League gave annual Christmas party.

Humor

Mr. Kinney—Why don't you answer me?
George L.—I did shake my head.
Mr. Kinney—I didn't hear anything.

Mr. Goold—Name some liquid that won't freeze.
Jewell—Hot water.
Mr. Goold—What is hard water?
Jewell—Ice!

Mr. Peirce (to physics class)—When drawing these diagrams, draw square lines.

Next day Miss Sandholdt reported to the physics class for an advanced course in math.

Judge—Were you ever in trouble before?
Orville B.—Well, I—er—kept a library book too long and was fined 2c.

Barber—Shall I cut your hair close?
Percy—No, stand off as far as possible.

Daisy—Sis Costa's coupe is awfully cute!
Margaret—Yes, you ought to see it play dead on a lonely road.

He kissed her on the cheek.
It seemed a harmless frolic.
He's been laid up a week
They say, with painter's colic.

Mr. Hodges—You're late again! Do you never hear the alarm clock nowdays?
Mae Amarant—Yes, sir, but I fear I no longer find it alarming.

HIGH SCHOOL DICTIONARY

Grades—All you can get out of some courses.
Cram—To learn 6 weeks' work in one.
High School—A freshman's favorite phrase.

Miss W.—Why?
Tony D.—I don't know their language.

Paul has only one Adam's apple, but he sure can hand out a lot of appuesauce.

BOOKS BY FAMOUS PEOPLE

1. How to raise and harvest a mustache yearly—by Mr. Gatchel.
2. My High School Career—by Ina Hiller.
3. Hamburger—by Carol Overacker.

Dear Sir: I am enclosing twenty-five cents. Please send me a jar of traffic jam.

Bill Wyatt—Football is just a side line with me.
Paul G.—Yes, I notice that's where you are usually sitting.

Freshman—How can I drive a nail without hitting my finger?
Mr. Mette—Hold the hammer with both hands.

Mr. Solvason—I told you twenty times to keep quiet. Now don't let me have to tell you a second time.

Howard—Caught any fish yet?
Jim L.—Nope. But I got one so tame that he is eating off my hook.

Mrs. Griffith—There is one thing I can't understand about football.
Coach—Yes?
Mrs. Griffith—Why a game so named should need so much headwork.

"Who goes there?" charged the sentry.
"You'd be surprised,' replied the recruit of the younger generation.

She wore her dresses well below her knee;
Her pretty ankles one could scarcely see;
Her golden hair in silken tresses fell;
Her winning smile o'er all did cast a spell.
Her lips were free from stick and cigarette
She would not take a drink of booze, or pet,
Yet many fellows sought to be her beau.
She was a co-ed—twenty years ago.
